Let's #RallyForRestaurants

Support your spot by paying it forward

Restaurants operate on thin margins, and with social distancing and governments enforcing capacity restrictions or takeout only at local restaurants, this industry needs our support now more than ever. Rally for Restaurants is a movement that we can all lean in on, together, to help those we love survive to serve another day.

We all have a place. A spot. A special restaurant, cafe, bakery, or bar in our local neighborhood that we frequent. [insert restaurant @handle] is proud to be that spot for so many of our loyal customers. Right now, the restaurant industry is being severely impacted with thousands of employees and businesses at risk. We need your help now more than ever.

@rallyforrestaurants challenges you to buy a gift card from your favorite local spot. You'll have an amazing meal to look forward to while supporting customers like us. Get your friends and family involved and together we can #RallyforRestaurants
