Let's #RallyForRestaurants

Support your spot by paying it forward

Restaurants operate on thin margins and, with social distancing and governments enforcing capacity restrictions or takeout only at local restaurants, the industry needs community support now more than ever. Rally for Restaurants is a movement that we can all lean in on, together, to help those we love survive to serve another day.

We're in unprecedented times. We're learning as we go, but the one thing we do know is how strong our community is. We're doing our best to continue to deliver the amazing experience our guests know and love, although it might look different for now. We encourage you and your friends to get involved in the #RallyforRestaurants movement. It's a great way to support your local restaurants, like ourselves, today and provide yourself with a delicious meal to look forward to. It's simple to get started:

1. Find our restaurant on rallyforrestaurants.com
2. Order takeout or food online for delivery
3. Buy a gift card (or five)
4. Share with #RallyForRestaurants
5. Challenge a friend
